

Corporate Partner Learning and Development Webinar

Building Positive Work Relationships Across Differences

This workshop will explore building and maintaining positive work relationships with colleagues from diverse backgrounds and perspectives. Aimed towards current and aspiring managers seeking to develop inclusive leadership skills essential in today's diverse workplace, participants will learn skills for:

- Fostering effective workplace interactions, handling conflicts, and navigating difficult conversations
- Understanding how leadership success depends on relationship-building across differences
- Navigating personal and professional boundaries in workplace relationships
- Engage in productive conversations across cultural, generational, and other differences.
